

Minutes

Watrous Heights Neighborhood Association Members Meeting, Monday January 10th, 2022

Sign in: Dave Johnston, Brad Greer, Andrea Greer, Tammy Berenguel, Becky Dewey, Buck Buchholz, Yanira Scarlett, Joel Van Roekel, Jim & Roxanne Hugley, Aubrey Loffredo

Joel Van Roekel- Parks and Recreation Liaison Officer:

- Working with local sports teams and worked with Drake Basketball (next game 1/13/22) and the Iowa Wolves (next game January 23rd), to get a $5.00 ticket for a few games in the future
- New newsletter is out and has information regarding upcoming spring and summer leagues
- Skating rinks are open
- 22 and You program (started but can still register)

Josh Raleigh- Inspector:

- Josh to provide updates on blight homes – Not in Attendance

Sargent Yanira Scarlett- Crime Report:

- Crime Report
 - 3 total events
 - 2 Burglary's (1 at 100 Watrous Git & Go and 2nd (810 Rose Ave)
 - 1 Robbery (South Union & Watrous - Git & Go)
- Calls up for cars being parked more than 24 hours when snow occurs
- Neighbor discussed concerns about fighting in his area
 - Sarge advised to call the issue in when it happens again, try and provide address if possible

Dave Johnston-

- We are currently holding our WHNA meetings with Zoom online because of the Covid-19 problem
- The WHNA Zoom Neighbors Meeting is Monday, February 14th 2022 at 6:00 pm. The featured speaker will be SuAnn Donovan, Deputy Director of Neighborhood Services. She will share information about property improvement incentives
- Looking to return to in person meetings at south union school in March
- South Union Elementary School Traffic Problems:
 - Jeff Wiggins, Transportation Planner, has a meeting with the DMPS at the end of this month which will address this problem.
- Block Grant Challenge. This has potential – Needs to be promoted.

Meeting Adjourned 7:10 PM